TO BEGIN PLAY:

To start the play, Player One calls out a location that tells where his shot is going. (A6 for example.) He marks it on his henhouse with an X. Player Two marks it on the other guy's henhouse with an X. If one of his thieves is hit, Player Two announces "a hit on my raccoon" or whatever. The player who made the shot then records it on his Scorecard with an X. As long as a player makes a hit he keeps on calling shots. As soon as he misses, the play goes to the other player.
